Introduction

WHAT THIS CUMULATIVE INDEX IS

This publication is a cumulative index to the abstracts contained in NASA SP-7011 (86) through NASA SP-7011 (97) of Aerospace Medicine and Biology: A Continuing Bibliography. NASA SP-7011, by means of supplements, serves as a current abstracting and announcement journal for references on bioscience and biotechnology. It has been compiled through the cooperative efforts of the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics (AIAA), and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

Entries prepared by the two contributing organizations are identified as follows:

1. NASA entries by their STAR accession numbers (N71-10000 series);
2. AIAA entries by their IAA accession numbers (A71-10000 series).

HOW THIS CUMULATIVE INDEX IS ORGANIZED

This Cumulative Index includes a subject index, a personal author index, and a corporate source index.

HOW TO USE THE SUBJECT INDEX

Two types of cross-references appear in the subject index:

1. Use (U) references indicate that the subject term is not "postable," i.e., not a valid term, and that the following term or terms are used instead. For example:

DOSE

U DOSAGE

AIRLINERS

U COMMERCIAL AIRCRAFT

U PASSENGER AIRCRAFT

2. Narrower Term (NT) references refer the user to more specific headings in the same subject area, under which additional material on the subject may be found. For example:

FATIGUE (BIOLOGY)

NT AUDITORY FATIGUE

NT FLIGHT FATIGUE

NT MUSCULAR FATIGUE

In addition, a searcher may use the notations of content in the index to narrow further his quest for particular items. This is because subject terms can readily include more than one class of document. For example:

BIOLOGICAL EFFECT

Vibratory force effect upon biological systems, particularly human organism.

Biological effect of cosmic and solar radiations on human body at high altitudes.

illustrates a case where two references on different topics are listed under the same subject term.

HOW TO USE THE PERSONAL AUTHOR INDEX

All personal authors used in the abstract-section citations in the individual Supplements appear in the index. Differences in transliteration schemes may require multiple searching of the index for variants of an author's name. For example:

EMELIANOV, M.D.
YEMELYANOV, M.D.

HOW TO USE THE CORPORATE SOURCE INDEX

The corporate source index entries are abridged versions of the corporate sources used in the abstract-section citations in the individual Supplements. The corporate source supplementary (organizational component) does not appear in the index. For example:

NEW MEXICO STATE UNIV., LAS CRUCES. DEPT. OF BIOLOGY
(Corporate source at citation)
NEW MEXICO STATE UNIV., LAS CRUCES.
(Corporate source index entry)

IDENTIFICATION OF DESIRED SUPPLEMENT

The abstract and descriptive cataloging for any accession number selected from the indexes may be found in the appropriate Supplement. The Accession Number Ranges table showing the ranges of accession numbers (N71-10000 and A71-10000) contained in each Supplement appears on the inside front cover of this index. Once the range of accession numbers containing the selected accession number is found in this table, the desired Supplement number is given in the left-hand column of the table. For example:

N71-21150 was announced in Supplement 90.

AVAILABILITY OF DOCUMENTS

Information concerning the availability of documents announced in Aerospace Medicine and Biology supplements is found in the Introduction to the most currently issued monthly supplement.

Typical Subject Index Listing

ADSORPTION

The Notation of Content (NOC), rather than the title of the document, is used to provide a more exact description of the subject matter. The NASA or AIAA accession number is included in each entry to assist the user in locating the abstract in the abstract section of an individual issue of Aerospace Medicine and Biology. The page number indicates the exact page on which the abstract is found. If applicable, a report number is also included as an aid in identifying the document.
