It's Not What You Think

Other's advice? Go to class. "But I think that's bull... that's for dumb kids who couldn't figure things out on their own... I skipped all 18.03 lectures except the first, went to no recitations...I slept until noon every day...I sleepwalked through first semester sophomore year" and "I did just fine."

Hearing Reaction

Armstrong Says Obama 'Poorly Advised' on NASA, Experts Ignored, Bloomberg

"A plan that was invisible to so many was likely contrived by a very small group in secret who persuaded the president that this was a unique opportunity to put his stamp on a new and innovative program," Armstrong said in remarks prepared for a Senate hearing. "I believe the president was poorly advised."

Former Astronauts unhappy with Obama space plan, AP

"Cernan said in his written testimony that he, Armstrong and Apollo 13 Commander James Lovell agreed that the administration's budget for human space exploration "presents no challenges, has no focus, and in fact is a blueprint for a mission to 'nowhere.'" Lovell, while not present at the hearing, issued a statement opposing Obama's NASA budget."

Astronauts Neil Armstrong, Eugene Cernan oppose Obama's spaceflight plans, Washington Post

"Obama's plans, which increase NASA's budget at a time when most agencies' budgets are being cut, have irked lawmakers from southern states where most of NASA and its contractors are based. Sen. George LeMieux (R-Fla.) worried that the plans would allow other countries to leapfrog ahead of the United States. "I do not look forward to explaining to my children why the Chinese are putting their flag on the moon over ours," LeMieux said."

Emily ☆ Collins would like to personally thank Nestle for providing a place for all the people who see their unethical, disgusting and lethal practices for what they are to share their opinions. Finally we have a way to share how much we hate their practices. If you don't boycott Nestle already, start now, please. <http://bit.ly/amnWkP>

Ruth Emily Hanson-Tipper I'm certainly NOT a fan. Why is there no "I want to register my disgust with this company" button?

Eric Tony Walker Haven't knowingly bought a Nestle product in 16 years, and I'm proud to boycott this unscrupulous multinational Nestlé you have freedom of speech and expression. Here, there are some rules we set. As in almost any other forum. It's to keep things clear.

Paul Griffin Your page, your rules, true, and you just lost a customer, won the battle and lost the war! Happy?

"Observations of an MIT Sophomore"

I didn't mean to write this entry. I sat down to write about some recent events I've been meaning to blog about for a while - and well, I started writing this instead.

1. You only have one freshman year. Live it up.
2. Pass/No Record is not an excuse to slack off and not learn the basics - it's a chance to adjust to MIT and learn the study habits you'll need for the next four years without having to be (as) afraid of failure.
3. Don't save all your work for the night before it's due. Seriously.
4. Caffeine is not a substitute for sleep. Try and get 8 hours a night - your body (and your friends, and your grades) will thank you.
5. Excuses are for high school.
